My little Cabin that Burns
and Sinks

-Pa
II TI PaTI is Tissue Office

A small cabin on the outskirts of the galaxy, our nest earth is burning and sinking. It means that the ordinary places where you feel most comfortable with in your everyday life such as office, toilet, convenience store parasol chair in front of your house, and the window in the back seat of the village bus are burning and sinking at the moment.

What will be the action that you can take in front of this dramatic landscape? What will happen to your most private space in the end? We are curious about your vision of the earth that is just about to end.

What to create?

We hear the news that the Earth is in various crises due to environmental pollution. But our daily scenery still looks peaceful. At this rate, we will soon face a terrifying landscape. One of the many things we, creators, can do to cope with the crisis may be to pre-draw the landscape with our imagination. Describe the daily scenery of your daily lives that burns away, collapses, and sinks beautifully.

- Visualize climate change and environmental pollution through personal daily life.
- Create a loop animation that describes your daily space burning, sinking, and breaking.
